It's A Good Idea To Participate In Good Neighbor Day

Being a good neighbor is an important part of the social fiber that makes this country so great. So it seems only fitting that one day a year is set aside to appreciate the good neighbors around us. In 2003, the U.S. Senate passed a resolution declaring September 28 to be National Good Neighbor Day.

Bake cookies and pass them out around the neighborhood. Have a block party. Or simply invite a neighbor over for a meal.

Speaking of good neighbors, Woodstock Communications is honored to bring communications services to you, our neighbors.
